

CHILD PRODIGY

KAUTILYA PANDIT, at the age of 8, became famous for his extraordinary memory and grasping power. He has an IQ of about 150 and is considered a mini encyclopaedia of knowledge, who can answer questions about 213 countries.

ANGAD DARYANI, made India's first 3D printer at the age of 13. He dropped out of school in the 9th grade, to achieve these things.

KISHAN SHRIKANTH is recognised as the youngest director in the world. He directed his first feature film 'Care of Footpath' at the age of 10.

TAYLOR RAMAN WILSON is the youngest person in the world to build a working fusion—a device designed to create nuclear fusion. He built a bomb at the age of 10 and the fusion at the age of 14.

PRIYANSHI SOMANI is a mental calculator who started mental calculation at the age of 6. At the age of 11, she was the youngest participant at the mental calculation world cup 2010, which she won.

CAMERON THOMPSON is a math prodigy from North Wales. When he was four years old, he corrected his teacher about her claim that zero is the lowest number, saying she forgot the negative numbers!

ARFA KARIM, a Pakistani girl, became one of the youngest Microsoft certified professionals in 2004, at the age of 9.

AKRIT PRAN JASWAL became well-known when he performed his first surgery at just 7 years. He is considered a medical genius.

BALAMURALI AMBATI, graduated from high school at the age of 11, was a college junior by the age of 12 and became a doctor at the age of 17.

ABDUS SALAM, at the age of 14, scored the highest marks ever recorded for the Matriculation Examination at the Punjab University.

KIM UNG-YONG graduated with a Ph.D in physics at the age of 15.

MIKAELA FUDOLIG finished college at the age of 16 with a degree in physics, at the University of Philippines.

